

Leti LaRosa was a founding member of the National Organization of Immigrants and the Visible Minority Women's Organization of Canada. In all aspects of her life, she celebrates her Philippino heritage and culture with newcomers and established Islanders.